

THE EAGLE ACADEMY FOUNDATION PRESENTS:

SAVING OUR SONS 2010:

Building Community and Defying Expectations

July 7-10, New York City

The Eagle Academy Foundation Professional Development Institute will address the issues educators face in the fight to provide leadership and education to young men of color. We will focus on the national crisis and investigate Eagle Academy's approach to solutions as well as discuss strategies that practitioners can use every day.

Wednesday, July 7, 2010

Welcome Reception
Open Society Institute
400 W. 59th Street, New York, NY

7:00-9:00pm: Mentoring and the Male Role Model

This reception will focus on the role that fathers and father figures must play in the lives of our young men.

Thursday, July 8, 2010

Professional Development: Day One
Scholastic, Inc.
557 Broadway, New York, NY

7:45-8:30am: Continental Breakfast

8:30-9:00am: Welcome and Introduction

The Eagle Methodology: David C. Banks, President, The Eagle Academy Foundation

9:00-10:00am: Keynote Speech

Speaker: Dr. Howard L. Fuller, Former Superintendent, Milwaukee Public Schools; Professor, Marquette University. What is this generation's commitment to eradicating the achievement gap? Our speaker will examine how the Eagle Academies have addressed this problem and what others can do.

10:00-10:30am: Break

10:30am-Noon: Breakout Groups: Taking It Further

We will break into smaller groups to discuss different issues inspired by our keynote speech. This will be a chance to take the Eagle Methodology and explore ways it can work around the issue of the achievement gap for young men of different ages in different situations and of different backgrounds.

Noon-1:00pm: Lunch

1:15-2:45pm: Expert Panel

Panelists: Howard Fuller, Jackie Jenkins-Scott, President, Wheelock College, and Peg Tyre, investigative reporter and author of The Trouble with Boys. This panel will draw upon their experience to challenge the audience and build on ideas advanced by the group.

3:00-4:30 pm: Eagle Student Panel

Moderator: Sharon Epperson, Award-Winning CNBC Senior Correspondent. We will hear from current and former Eagle students about how their experience at the Eagle Academies has influenced their lives.

4:30-5:00pm: Break

5:00-6:00pm: Reception

Discuss the day's events with other participants before enjoying New York City on your own. Information on shows, plays and music around the city will be available.
